RULING ON ENTITLEMENT<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On January 27, 2016, Jean Meizel (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> (the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of receiving the trivalent influenza vaccine on August 25, 2014. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that she received her vaccination in the United States, that she has suffered the residual effects of her injury for more than six months, and that no lawsuit has been filed or settlement accepted by herself or anyone else for her injuries. Id. at ¶¶ 18-20. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 6, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent indicates that she "has concluded that petitioner's alleged injury is consistent with SIRVA, and that it was caused in fact by the flu vaccine she received on August 25, 2014." Id. at 4. Respondent further indicates that "petitioner has met the statutory requirements for entitlement to compensation . . . [and] [t]herefore, based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act." Id. at 4-5 (citations omitted).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
